Document Description :

This document is a 2-page CIA cable regarding the location of a concentration camp in Valley of Na Khoang that allegedly held U.S. Prisoners of War. It is alledged that U.S Prisoners of War died and were buried at or near the camp. The cable identifies a human source which has been properly withheld. In addition internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, as well as intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources, functions and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page CIA cable concerning the American POWS absence at the Reeducation camp in Ha Nam Ninh. This document also described the Reeducation camp personnel and prisoners. The cable identifies a human source which has been properly withheld. In addition internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, as well as intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources, functions and methods and organizational information that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page CIA cable, dated circa 1982 ,concerning the American Prisoners of Wars absence in the five Reeducation camps within North Vietnam. This document also provides information on the personnel, prisoners and organization of the camps. The cable identifies a human source which has been properly withheld. In addition internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, as well as intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources, functions and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 4-page report dated March 12, 1982, from the CIA to other intelligence consumers regarding the Soviet Union allegedly receiving U.S. Prisoners of War from Vietnam for long term or lifetime incarceration. The report identifies a human source (e.g. name, occupation and other detailed information) in addition to internal CIA markings and organizational information. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources, functions and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). Document Description :

This document is a 1-page letter from the CIA Deputy Director for Senate Affairs to J. William Codinha the Chief Counsel for the Select Committee on POW/MIA Affairs regarding a release of documents regarding the Dong Vair Prison. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers have been withheld, as well as CIA personnel information and a signature. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains exempt from release under the Freedom of Information Act.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources, functions and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources, functions and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page cable providing a compilation of information on a foreign government. The entire document is derived from a sensitive CIA source of intelligence, refers to specific foreign government entities, and includes personal identifying information including a name, title and date/place of birth. The document also includes CIA typed and handwritten analysis of the information, CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including routing details, CIA dissemination information and information about a private individual. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the name and date of birth of an individual. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

This document is a 1-page cable forwarding information shared by a foreign government liaison. The entire document is derived from liaison information, refers to specific foreign government entities, and includes personal identifying information including a name, title, date/place of birth and medical records, CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including routing details, CIA dissemination information and the name of a private individual. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the name of an individual. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): This document contains information that, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the names of private individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable providing information on the policy considerations of a foreign entity. The entire document is derived from a sensitive CIA source of intelligence, refers to specific foreign entities, and includes personal information such as names and titles. The document also includes CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including routing details, CIA dissemination information and serial numbers. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though this document is UNDATED, and assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): This document contains information that, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the names of private individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable providing a compilation of information on a foreign government. The entire document is derived from a sensitive CIA source of intelligence, refers to specific foreign government entities and includes CIA handwritten analysis contextualizing the summarized information and personal identifying information including a name. The document also includes CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including routing details, CIA dissemination information, CIA internal record-keeping details and serial number. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause exceptionally grave damage to the national security. Additionally, even though the document is UNDATED, and assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page cable forwarding information shared by a foreign government liaison service that summarizes military activities in another foreign country. The entire document is derived from liaison information and refers to specific foreign government entities. The document also contains CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including routing details, CIA dissemination information, CIA internal record-keeping details and a serial number. It is currently and properly classified as TOP SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause exceptionally grave damage to the national security. Additionally, even though this document is UNDATED, and assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Document Description:

This document is a 1-page cable, dated September 1, 1974, forwarding information shared by a foreign government liaison service that summarizes military activities in other foreign countries. The entire document is derived from liaison information and refers to specific foreign government entities. The document also contains CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including routing details, CIA dissemination information, CIA internal record-keeping details and a serial number. It is currently and properly classified as TOP SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause exceptionally grave damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Document Description:

This document is a 1-page cable, dated June 4, 1972, forwarding information shared by a foreign government liaison service that provides information on foreign military elements in another country. The entire document is derived from liaison information and refers to specific foreign government entities. The document also contains CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including routing details, CIA dissemination information, CIA internal record-keeping details and a serial number. It is currently and properly classified as TOP SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause exceptionally grave damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable providing information on the policy considerations of a foreign entity. It is a duplicate of C00579924 but contains additional CIA handwritten analysis and notations. The entire document is derived from a sensitive CIA source of intelligence, refers to specific foreign entities, and includes personal information such as names and titles. The document also includes CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including routing details, CIA dissemination information and serial numbers. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though this document is UNDATED, and assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including names and titles. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page cable, dated April 15, 1970, asking recipients to review of a request for assistance from a U.S. government entity. The entire document discusses sensitive CIA methods and capabilities, and includes personal identifying information of a CIA officer including a name. The document also includes CIA control markings and other CIA internal organizational data including routing details, CIA dissemination information and CIA serial number. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page memorandum, dated May 19, 1974, providing an update on another government agency's request for declassification of a report. The document provides specific source identifying information and links the source information to a specific CIA report number. The document also contains CIA employee data including name, title, and signature, CIA control markings and other CIA internal organizational data including CIA internal record-keeping details and serial number. It is currently and properly classified as CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 4-page memorandum, dated May 10, 1971, summarizing a CIA procurement request for a CIA foreign activity. The entire document details the sensitive CIA foreign activity, describes CIA methods and capabilites regarding the foreign activity and sensitive CIA relationships with foreign governments involved in the activity. The document also contains CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including internal record-keeping details. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page CIA intelligence report, dated November 9, 1989, from the CIA to other intelligence consumers discussing POWs on the Lao-Vietnamese border and the location of MIA remains in Cambodia. CIA organizational data including a serial number and personal identifying information including names, title, social security number, medical information and religious affiliation have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of the document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempted from release under the FOIA.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains internal organizational data, functions by the CIA, and personal information that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including names, title, social security number, medical information and religious affiliation. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

Document Description :

This document is a 4-page CIA cable, dated January 13, 1971, summarizing five months of information on sighting of US POWs and POW detention cells in Laos derived in part from foreign government information and in part from a CIA human source. Detailed information regarding the CIA's relationship with the foreign government, and detailed biographical information concerning the CIA human source, as well as CIA's assessment of the sources and the location of CIA facilities have been properly withheld along with CIA control markings and CIA internal organizational data including serial number, CIA internal record-keeping information and analytic identifiers. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal CIA organizational data and functions that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description:

This document is a 4-page CIA report analyzing a review that was conducted regarding U.S. POWs in the Republic of Vietnam. Personal identifying information including names and titles have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of the document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains exempted from release under the FOIA.

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including names and titles. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

Document Description:

This document is a 4-page letter regarding the location of Americans. Personal identifying information including names, identification numbers and religious affiliation has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of the document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains exempted from release under the FOIA.

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including names and titles. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

Document Description :

This document is 2 pages of a report regarding a CIA human asset. The entire document contains source identifying information including name, date of birth, occupational history, and current location. The document also identifies the asset's relationship with the CIA, details CIA foreign activities involving the asset, and contains CIA control markings and other CIA organizational data including internal record-keeping details and a serial number. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though the document is UNDATED, and assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). Document Description :

This is a 2-page finished intelligence report, dated May 9, 1969, regarding the intentions of a foreign government organization derived from multiple sources. The document demonstrates CIA methods of analysis with regards to the information and CIA insight into a sensitive foreign government position. The document also contains CIA internal dissemination controls and CIA internal organizational data including record-keeping details and serial number. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

This document is a 1-page memo from the CIA to other government officials informing them of recent information acquired from a CIA human source. The document identifies the CIA human source by name, title, and affiliation and includes the name, title, and signature of a CIA employee. The document also contains CIA internal organizational data including record-keeping details and serial number. It is currently and properly classified as SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though the document is UNDATED, and assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel informatino by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This entire document consists only of a single photograph which is personal identifying information of an individual. There is no POW/MIA information in this document. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains exempted from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including names and titles. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

The CIA conducted a review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.
