Document Description :

This document is a 4-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains source identifying information including biographical information of a CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information regarding a CIA human source.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page intelligence report from the CIA to other intelligence consumers describing information on an American allegedly staying near the Vietnam border. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains CIA methods and source information.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

Document Description :

This document is a 3-page cable and a 2-page from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

Document Description :

This document is a 3-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies a source and reveals dissemination information and other CIA internal control markings.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source. This document reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 3-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings. This document also contains personal information including names, birthdates and religious background information of alleged POW/MIAs that has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

Exemption (b)(6): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(6). The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

More specifically, this document contains personal information including names, birthdates and religious background of alleged POWs/MIA.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, and reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings. This document also contains personal information including names, birthdates and religious background information of alleged POW/MIAs that has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

Exemption (b)(6): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(6). The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

More specifically, this document contains personal information including names, birthdates and religious background of alleged POWs/MIA.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

This document also contains personal information including the name of an unidentified individual that has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

Exemption (b)(6): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(6). The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

More specifically, this document contains personal information including the name of an unidentified individual.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable from the CIA to other U.S. government entities that contains information pertaining to a POW/MIA that was obtained from a Lao informant.
This document identifies intelligence sources and methods, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings. This document also contains personnel information (e.g. names of CIA officer) that has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains an internal CIA marking that identifies a specific source and method.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cable from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

This document is a 6-page letter from the CIA to another government entity that contains detailed information provided by a human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, reveals specific CIA methods, and other CIA internal organizational information that has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains information of a CIA human source and the name of a specific CIA method.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page report that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it reveals dissemination information and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page memorandum from the CIA to other government entities that makes reference to a report regarding autopsies allegedly performed on the bodies of U.S. pilots. This document reveals dissemination information and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempted from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains dissemination information and other CIA internal control markings that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it contains specific internal report identifying information, and identifies the official title of an agency division.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 4-page intelligence report from the CIA to other government entities that contains information provided by a human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies CIA installations overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it reveals dissemination information and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 3-page memorandumt from the CIA to other government entities that makes reference to a report regarding the alleged sighting of a U.S. Marine.
This document reveals the name of a CIA officer, a signature, identifies a CIA facility in addition to dissemination information and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains dissemination information and other CIA internal control markings that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it contains specific internal report identifying information, the signature and Agency Identification Number of CIA employees, as well as names and official titles of CIA employees.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

This document is a 2-page report from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and the location of CIA facilities overseas.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). Document Description :

This document is a 2-page cable that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

This document is a 5-page cable from the CIA to DIA that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security.

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it reveals dissemination information such as routing sheets, and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page letter from an individual by the name of Jean Raymond regarding a FOIA request for information pertaining to Sgt. Robert Phillips. This document reveals dissemination information, and also contains personal information including the home address of an individual that has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempted from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it identifies divisions located within CIA.

Exemption (b)(6): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(6). The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

More specifically, this document contains personal information including the home address of a specific individual.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page report regarding the crash of an aircraft and capture of two American pilots. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page memo from the CIA to other government entities that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source in addition to the name of a CIA officer, a signature, dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This

Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it reveals dissemination information, including the signature of a CIA employee, and other CIA internal control markings.

Document Description :

This document is a 3-page memorandum from the CIA to the DIA, the first page of which is a cover sheet, that contains information from a CIA human source and includes biographic information on that CIA human source, information about a CIA facility, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(1) because it contains biographical information of a CIA human source and CIA methods. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

More specifically, this document is withheld in part pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) because it reveals dissemination information, the official titles of persons and divisions located within CIA and other CIA internal control markings.

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.
