07/08/2014	16	ORDER as to AHMED ABU KHATALLAH: Based on the representations set forth in the governments oral proffer and motion at the status hearing held on July 8, 2014, and a review of the entire record in this case, the Court hereby makes the following findings: Given the nature of the indicted offense and overall prosecution, the fact that the offense is alleged to have occurred outside the United States, the fact that much of the evidence originates and many of the witnesses reside overseas, the fact that the defendant faces a possible sentence of life imprisonment, the possibility of novel questions of fact or law, the voluminous discovery materials to be produced, and the defendants need for an interpreter, the Court finds that the case is so unusual and complex that it is unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for pretrial proceedings or for the trial itself with the time limits established by the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, and For the foregoing reasons, the Court further finds the ends of justice are served by granting the governments request for time to be excluded from the computation within which to commence trial for the defendant under the Act, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (h)(7)(B)(ii), and that the ends of justice outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedier trial. Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED, that, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), that the following time shall be excluded from the computation of time within which to commence trial for the defendant under the Speedy Trial Act: from the date of the status hearing on July 8, 2014, through the date of the next status hearing, which is currently scheduled for the 9th day of September, 2014 at 11:00 AM. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 7/8/2014. (tcb) (Entered: 07/08/2014)
