NR		Allied Prisoners May Become Pawn In Laos Bargaining The Lao Communists apparently intend to use some of their allied prisoners as bargaining chips to force changes in US and Their policy toward Laos.
		he Communitis will continue to hold an unspecified number of US and Thai prisoners beyond the prisoner exchange deadline of June 4. This is particularly those captured after the cease-flie agreement of February 1973. US civilian contract pilot Emmet Key is the only American prisoner in the post-agreement category and the only one the Leo Communists admit to
