Document Description:

This document is a 2-page Information Report distributed on December 11, 1959, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers reporting on the questioning of a source regarding the Chinese communist attitude toward remarks made by Khrushchev, the possible release of American prisoners, the removal of P'eng Te-Huai, and the Tibetan situation. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security. The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 50 years under Executive Order 13526 because the information should clearly and demonstrably be expected to reveal the identity of a human intelligence source.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 4-page Intelligence Information Report distributed on February 18, 1971, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers reporting on information received from a source after his trip to North Vietnam in December 1970. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source and his contacts, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description:

This document is a 6-page Intelligence Information Cable distributed on June 3, 1971, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers reporting on an NVA/PL detention center. The report discussed, among other things, the conditions of the camp and political indoctrinations. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. The document contains a classified analytical summary of the contents of the document which if released would reveal CIA intelligence sources and methods and therefore has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description:

This document is a 4-page Intelligence Information Report distributed on September 11, 1974, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers detailing the implementation of JCIA plans made for the first POW exchange. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released with only information concerning CIA sources and methods redacted. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). Document Description:

This document is a 9-page Intelligence Information Report distributed on September 13, 1974, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers discussing procedures agreed upon by the JCIA regarding the POW exchange. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. The document contains a classified analytical summary of the contents of the document which if released would reveal CIA intelligence sources and methods and therefore has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). Document Description :

This document is a 1-page Information Report distributed on February 29, 1960, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers describing American prisoners. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 50 years under Executive Order 13526 because the information should clearly and demonstrably be expected to reveal the identity of a human intelligence source.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). Document Description :

This document is a 6-page Intelligence Information Report distributed on June 21, 1976, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers discussing the Democratic Republic of Vietnam's (DRV) relationship with the U.S. and other countries. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. The document contains a classified analytical summary of the contents of the document which if released would reveal CIA intelligence sources and methods and therefore has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released with CIA sources and methods properly withheld. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25

Document Description:

This document is a 3-page Intelligence Report distributed on May 1, 1984, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers reporting on Vietnamese Ambassador Bo's talk at an SRV Embassy reception in Paris, France where he discussed the Vietnamese attitude toward the Sino-Soviet normalization talk, the US Delegation's visit to Hanoi seeking information on the MIA and the SRV reaction to the defection of a Vietnamese performer in West Berlin. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. The document contains a classified analytical summary of the contents of the document which if released would reveal CIA intelligence sources and methods and therefore has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). Document Description :

This document is a 3-page Intelligence Report distributed on May 17, 1974, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers discussing Laos' policy concerning the POW exchange. This document provides information regarding CIA sources and methods, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the bases of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 16-page Intelligence Information Report distributed on May 16, 1974, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers reporting on the LPF directive addressing the POW exchange, the neutralization of Vientiane and Luang Prabang, troops, equipment, the cease-fire, reopening of highways and U.S. relations. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, and reveals dissemination information that have been properly withheld. The document contains a classified analytical summary of the contents of the document which if released would reveal CIA intelligence sources and methods and therefore has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released with very few redactions. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption

(b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description:

This document is a 9-page Intelligence Information Report distributed on August 29, 1974, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers reporting on the Joint Commission to Implement Agreement meeting regarding procedures with respect to the prisoner of war exchange. This document includes distribution information, the identification of human sources and intelligence methods. The document contains a classified analytical summary of the contents of the document which if released would reveal CIA intelligence sources and methods and therefore has been properly withheld. The substantive portion of the document consisting of 7-pages has been released with source information redacted. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). Document Description:

This document is a 12-page Intelligence Information Report distributed on September 5, 1974, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers discussing the FAR meeting where the POW exchanges, unrest among enlisted men in FAR, personnel reductions and other issues were discussed. This document contains distribution information, the identification of human sources and intelligence method which have properly been withheld. The document contains a classified analytical summary of the contents of the document which if released would reveal CIA intelligence sources and methods and therefore has been properly withheld. The substantive portion the document consisting of 9-pages has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to FOIA Exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3) - This document is withheld in part on the basis of Exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2009), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description:

This document is a 4-page Intelligence Information Report distributed on February 20, 1984, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers reporting on information received from human sources and foreign governments regarding U.S. MIA's. The entire cable describes in detail information the CIA has been provided by foreign governments. The remainder of the text consists of CIA organizational units, internal and restricted dissemination markings and disseminated related controls. This document is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 5-page memorandum which includes an intelligence report attachment, distributed on March 14, 1985, by the CIA to other intelligence consumers reporting on information received from a human source and a foreign intelligence service discussing foreign policy and the MIA issue. The entire cable discusses sensitive classified sourced information, provides an analysis of the topics discussed, reveals foreign intelligence relationships and intelligence activities. The remainder of the text consists of CIA organizational units, internal and restricted dissemination markings and disseminated related controls.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is denied in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Document Description:

This document includes 3-pages that are nearly identical and are all dated October 21, 1980; each is an internal CIA routing sheet that was sent to various CIA offices regarding the MIA issue. The document consists of CIA organizational units, names of CIA employees, internal numbers which are exempt from disclosure. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempted from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(2), (b)(3) and (b)(5).

Exemption (b)(2): This document contains information relating to the internal rules and practices of the CIA, including administrative, organizational, and routing information including names and telephone numbers of CIA components the disclosure of which is not subject to genuine and significant public interest, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(2).

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(5): This document contains information relating to intra-agency predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of CIA employees, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.
