Document Description:

This document is a 3-page CIA memorandum to other intelligence consumers concerning the death and possible burial place of an alleged U.S. airman. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers, dissemination control markings, and signatures have been withheld, in addition to intelligence sources and methods, names of CIA officers and CIA locations. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. This document also contains personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions, and personnel information, such as a signature, by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page CIA information report concerning the capture of a U.S. POW/MIA in 1972 in Indochina, as well as the detention of several U.S. POW's/MIA's. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, in addition to intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description:

This document is a 2-page CIA information report to other intelligence consumers regarding crashsites in the Quang Ninh Province in 1966, 1967 and 1971. The information report describes the conditions of the crashsites, general information about the deaths of the U.S. pilots, and information related to the burial sites of the U.S. pilots. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, in addition to intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description:

This document is a 4-page document, the first two of which are cover pages to a CIA memorandum to other intelligence consumers regarding the 1972 capture of a U.S. airman in Ha Bac Province, and the alleged gravesite of a U.S. airman in the Thai Binh Province. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, as well as personnel information such as signatures, in addition to intelligence sources, methods and identification of a CIA facility. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, in addition to personnel information in the form of a signature, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 3-page cover page to a CIA memorandum to other intelligence consumers regarding the reported detention of 16 Americans in Laos. The cover page contains a disclaimer about the proper use of the information in the memo. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been properly withheld, in addition to intelligence sources, methods and identification of a CIA facility. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page cover page to a CIA memorandum to other intelligence consumers regarding the reported detention of 16 Americans in Laos. The cover page contains a disclaimer about the proper use of the information in the memo. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, as well as personnel information in the form of a signature, in addition to intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA, as well as personnel information in the form of a signature, that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page CIA cable to other intelligence consumers regarding the capture of an alleged U.S. airman in 1966 or 1967 in Indochina. The cable describes the physical appearance of the airman, the length he was detained, and which direction he was taken in by local forces. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, in addition to intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign activities of the U.S., intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). Document Description :

This document is a 3-page CIA cable to other intelligence consumers dated circa September, 1987 assessing a Vietnamese political refugee with information on American MIA's. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, in addition to intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign activities of the U.S., intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 17-page CIA report to other intelligence consumers regarding the U.S. servicemen who were unaccounted for in Southeast Asia as of September 3, 1987. The report describes the issue as tied to Hanoi's political and economic agenda, assesses whether Vietnam is exploiting POW/MIA issues to accomplish its own policy goals, and also discusses the Korean agenda and the French experience. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings have been withheld, in addition to intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the names of servicemen. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign activities of the U.S., intelligence activities (including special activities), and intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description:

This document is a 2-page cable, distributed on August 21, 1984, discussing in detail CIA human-source-based intelligence about the leadership of a foreign government. It does not contain any mention of POWs or MIAs. The document consists of highly sensitive material including information regarding CIA sources and methods, source identifiers, intelligence activities, and locations of CIA facilities overseas. The remainder of the document consists of CIA routing and dissemination information, and CIA office, title, and file numbers, and control markings. All of the above information has been properly withheld. The document is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to sections 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security. The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

This document is a 2-page cable, distributed on August 17, 1987, discussing in detail what the CIA knew and did not know about organization and activities of a foreign government. It does not contain any mention of POWs or MIAs. The document consists of highly sensitive material including information regarding CIA sources and methods, likely including human sources, source identifiers, intelligence activities, and locations of CIA facilities overseas. The remainder of the document consists of CIA routing and dissemination information, CIA office, title, file numbers, and control markings, and what may be the handwriting of a CIA employee. All of the above information has been properly withheld. The document is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document is a 6-page cable, dated August 13, 1987, discussing in detail CIA human-source-based intelligence about locations of foreign government installations. It does not contain any mention of POWs or MIAs. The document consists of highly sensitive material including information regarding CIA sources and methods, source identifiers, intelligence activities, and locations of CIA facilities overseas. The remainder of the document consists of CIA routing and dissemination information, CIA office, title, and file numbers, and control markings. All of the above information has been properly withheld. The document is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page cable, distributed on August 15, 1984, discussing in detail CIA human-source-based intelligence about the leadership and activities of a foreign government. It does not contain any mention of POWs or MIAs. The document consists of highly sensitive material including information regarding CIA sources and methods, source identifiers, intelligence activities, and locations of CIA facilities overseas. The remainder of the document consists of CIA routing and dissemination information, CIA office, title, and file numbers, and control markings. All of the above information has been properly withheld. The document is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to sections 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description:

This document is a 4-page cable, distributed on August 22, 1984, discussing in detail CIA human-source-based intelligence about the organization of a foreign government. It does not contain any mention of POWs or MIAs. The document consists of highly sensitive material including information regarding CIA sources and methods, source identifiers, intelligence activities, and locations of CIA facilities overseas. The remainder of the document consists of CIA routing and dissemination information, CIA office, title, and file numbers, and control markings. All of the above information has been properly withheld. The document is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to sections 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Document Description :

This document is a 4-page cable, distributed on August 29, 1984, discussing in detail CIA human-source-based intelligence about the organization, leadership, and functions of a foreign government. It does not contain any mention of POWs or MIAs. The document consists of highly sensitive material including information regarding CIA sources and methods, source identifiers, intelligence activities, and locations of CIA facilities overseas. The remainder of the document consists of CIA routing and dissemination information, CIA office, title, and file numbers, and control markings. All of the above information has been properly withheld. The document is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to sections 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Document Description :

This document is a 3 page CIA memorandum plus an intake and coversheet to various intelligence consumers concerning wreckage of U.S.-made aircraft containing the possible remains of U.S. MIA personnel in Van Ninh District, Socialist Republic of Vietnam Phu Khanh Province. This document reveals intelligence sources and methods including information about CIA facilities and names of human sources. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers, dissemination control markings, a signature and the name of a CIA employee have been withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released with CIA sources and methods and organizational data properly withheld. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

* * * *

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions or personnel information by the CIA that are specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description:

This is a two-page intelligence report from the CIA to other intelligence consumers describing the claimed sightings of U.S. personnel possibly missing in action in Laos in the period 1969-1979. This document contains source identifying information, intelligence methods information as well as internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers and dissemination control markings all of which have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though this document is UNDATED, and assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.
