UNOPPOSED MOTION LEAVE TO FILE REPLY
TO CIA'S OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR
PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT OUT-OF-TIME

Come now the plaintiffs, Roger Hall and Studies Solutions Results, Inc., (hereafter collectively referred to as "Hall"), and Accuracy in Media, and move this Court for leave to file their reply to defendant Central Intelligence Agency's opposition to plaintiff's motion for partial summary judgment on the issue of whether the CIA must provide records to Hall in word searchable electronic format out-of-time.

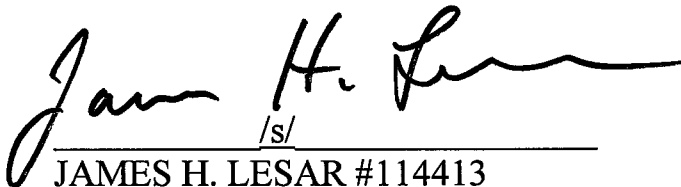

As grounds for this motion, Hall represents to the Court as follows:

1. Hall has previously filed unopposed motions for extensions of time to file the Reply, most recently to and including August 19, 2013. To date these motions have not been acted upon.

3. On Monday, August 19, the undersigned counsel, James H. Lesar, suffered intense and extensive body pain, particularly of the lower back and legs. This made it impossible for him to accomplish very much that day. Also, the computer expert he had retained to file a declaration in this case was unable to continue work on his declaration that day for medical reasons. Plaintiffs' counsel's problem in being able to accomplish much work due to severe body pain abated on Tuesday, but still continued. On Wednesday, August 21, 2013, after a visit to his physical therapist, his condition improved markedly and he was able to work pretty much full throttle the rest of the day and night.

4. Defendant does not oppose this motion.

Respectfully submitted,
