UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
TO RESPOND TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS AND FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Come now the plaintiffs and moves this Court for an extension of time, to and including May 8, 2007, within which to file their responses to defendant Central Intelligence Agency's motion to dismiss or for partial summary judgment. As grounds for this motion, plaintiffs represent to the Court as follows:

1. Plaintiffs' responses are currently due on May 2, 2007.
2. Mr. James H. Lesar, counsel for plaintiffs Roger Hall and Studies Solutions Results, Inc. ("SSRI"), was ill for several days the week before last, and this illness delayed work on other matters, including a brief due in Oglesby v. Federal Bureau of Investi-gation, et al., Civil Action No. 02-0603. As a result, he only began to work on this case again at the end of the past week. The case involves a need to review a substantial number of records and address a number of issues, several of which have not been briefed previously. Mr. Lesar has just completed an initial draft of a declaraaation by plaintiff Roger Hall which will be relied upon by all plaintiffs in their response. Consequently, all plaintiffs are agreed on the need a short extension of time.

3. Defendant does not oppose this motion.

Respectfully submitted,
