UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR FURTHER EXTENSION
TO TIME TO OPPOSE DEFENDANT'S MOTION
TO STRIKE THE DECLARATION OF ROGER HALL

Come now plaintiffs Roger Hall and Studies Solutions Results, Inc. (hereafter jointly referred to as "Hall") and after discussion with opposing counsel regarding a schedule amenable to the calendars of counsel for all parties, move for a further extension of time, to and including September 4, 2007, within which to oppose defendant's motion to strike portions of the declaration of Roger Hall submitted in support of said plaintiff's cross-motion for summary judgment. As grounds for their motions, said plaintiffs represent to the Court as follows:

1. Plaintiffs' responses are currently due on August 21, 2007,

2. Hall's counsel filed a brief in the Court of Appeals in Morley v. Central Intelligence Agency, D.C. Cir. No. 06-5382, on August 13, 2007. Subsequently, he has had a series of appointments (physical therapist and cardiologist) which will continue this next week (nephrologist and physical therapist). He expects to file a brief due in another case, Davis v. Dept. of Justice, Civil Action No. 88-0130, within the next couples of days. Thus far, the undersigned counsel has done a fair amount of research necessary for his brief in this case, but more remains to be done, and counsel's schedule is further complicated by the fact that he is in the process of an moving an enormous amount stuff from his home and home office to a new residence and new office location, as well as into a rented storage space.

3. Defendant does not oppose this motion.

Respectfully submitted,
