Document Description :

This document is a 3-page cable from the CIA to other intelligence consumers reporting on the absence of Americans at and description of Camp-6 in Nghe Tinh and Zuan Loc Camp in Dong Nai. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, reveals dissemination information, and other CIA internal control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, and functions that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page CIA memorandum to the Chairman of the Select Committee on POW/MIA Affairs sending an analysis which was requested, by letter dated July 13, 1992 regarding the photography dated January 22, 1988, including command, control and communications. This document identifies internal CIA organizational data, dissemination control markings and CIA numbers. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempted from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page CIA letter to the Chairman of the Select Committee on POW/MIA Affairs responding to an inquiry concerning CIA Intelligence Reports on "live sightings" in Laos after January 27, 1973. This document identifies internal CIA organizational data and CIA numbers. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempted from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 15 -page report and contains information about the Ministries of Interior and National Defense prisons and interrogation facilities in the Ho Chi Minh City area. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source and the name of an individual that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information involving intelligence sources and methods of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though this document is UNDATED, assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the name of an individual. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

Document Description :

This document is a 3-page CIA memorandum, dated July 30, 1992, containing information and an analysis of surface markings near Muang Tan in Laos. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, various CIA methods and various internal CIA organizational data such as dissemination control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources and methods of the United States, including sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in full on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions or personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page letter dated June 23, 1992, from the CIA to the Chief Counsel of the Select Committee on POW/MIA Affairs responding to a request made by the Committee Investigator for possible information on the movement of POWs in Laos in late 1980. This document identifies CIA methods and foreign government information as well as internal CIA organizational data, CIA numbers and a signature. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to foreign government information, intelligence methods, activities, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources or methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

This document is a 1-page letter, dated June 11, 1992, from the CIA to the Chairman of the Select Committee on POW/MIA Affairs in response to the Committee's letter requesting more detailed information about the Lao People's Democratic Republic's Ministry of Interior. This document identifies internal CIA organizational data and CIA numbers. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempted from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 4-page intelligence report and contains information about the sighting of 30-40 Caucasians, possibly prisoners, in Hanoi. This document identifies and provides information regarding human sources, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals internal CIA organizational data, numbers and dissemination control markings that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information involving intelligence sources and methods, activities and foreign relations of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though this document is UNDATED, assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions or personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. This document is withheld in full because there is no meaningful non-exempt information that can reasonably be segregated from any exempt information.

Document Description :

This document is a 57-page report and contains information about the Ministries of Interior and National Defense prisons and re-education camps in Southern SRV except Ho Chi Minh City. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source, the name of individuals, and CIA personnel information that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information involving intelligence sources and methods of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though this document is UNDATED, assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions or personnel information (e.g. names of CIA contractors or employees) by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including names of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions, and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page intelligence report, dated December 4, 1985, from the CIA to other intelligence consumers about the alleged presence of a U.S. airman who was living in a hamlet in Vietnam's highlands. This document identifies and provides information about a CIA officer, a signature, CIA numbers in addition to CIA internal organizational data and dissemination control markings all of which have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page document, the first being a fax cover sheet and the second an intelligence report, dated November 5, 1985, containing information about a dog tag and the remains of a U.S. serviceman in Binh Tri Thien Province circa 1981. This document identifies and provides information about a source and CIA facilities as well as CIA internal organizational data, dissemination control markings and CIA numbers that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page intelligence report and contains information about the downing of a U.S. aircraft near Uong Bi City, Quang Ninh Province in 1967. This document reveals internal CIA organizational data including file numbers, dissemination control markings and other CIA numbers. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempt from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, function and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 1-page intelligence report and contains information about the downing of two U.S. aircraft in Quang Ninh Province. This document identifies and provides information about CIA internal organizational data, dissemination control markings and CIA numbers that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempted from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(3): This document contains internal organizational data, functions or personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page intelligence report dated October 9, 1986 which discusses the presence of an American male observed working near the headquarters of People's Army of Vietnam. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source that has properly been withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released with CIA sources and methods and organizations data properly withheld. It is currently classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to national security.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description :

This document is a 3-page CIA cable regarding radio comments on a photograph of U.S. MIA's. CIA intelligence sources and the name of a CIA officer have been properly withheld, as well as the name of an individual. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions or personnel information (e.g. name of CIA officer) by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain personal information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the name of an individual. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

* * * *

Document Description :

This document is an undated, 1-page intelligence report which discusses the burial of two U.S. airmen who were found in Hon Gai, Quang Ninh Province. Their deaths are tied to the crash of a U.S. A-6 aircraft in the summer of 1972. Additionally, the report mentions the disinterring of one of the airmen's body for use of his skeleton in the Hon Gai Hospital for medical training purposes. This document identifies and provides information about CIA source, reveals CIA internal organizational data, dissemination control markings and CIA numbers that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though this document is UNDATED, and assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is an undated, 2-page intelligence report which discusses that circa 1973, a grave with a marker and a Vietnamese inscription "American Pilot Bandit's Grave" was located in Nam Dan, Dien Chau District, Nghe Tinh Province. This document reveals internal CIA organizational data including file numbers, dissemination control markings and other CIA personnel information. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is UNCLASSIFIED but remains statutorily exempt from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, function and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is an undated, 1-page intelligence report which discusses the crashing of a U.S. F-105 in late 1972 at Thuong Yen Cong near Vang Danh Coal Mine, Quang Ninh Province. The pilot was killed in the crash. This document identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, CIA internal organizational data, dissemination control markings and CIA numbers that have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, even though this document is UNDATED, and assuming it is older than 25 years, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is an undated, 2-page intelligence report which discusses the alleged burial of a U.S. person who was killed during the summer of 1972. It also discusses the alleged carrying of a skeleton of a U.S. serviceman in a suitcase by an acquaintance in his home. This document identifies and provides information regarding a human source that has properly been withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released with CIA sources and methods and organizations data properly withheld. It is currently classified SECRET.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations of the United States, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to national security.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data, functions and personnel information by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Document Description :

This document is a 2-page CIA memorandum to other intelligence consumers regarding the October 1971 message about prisoner exchange developments. Internal CIA organizational notations such as document control identifiers have been withheld, in addition to intelligence sources and methods. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods, including confidential sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(b), 1.4(c), 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

* * * *

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

The information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).
