Document Description:

This document is a 1-page memorandum from the CIA to the Chief of the PW/MIA Branch at the Defense Intelligence Agency about a Privacy Act/FOIA request concerning an individual who was designated "MIA." Internal CIA organizational notations such as CIA numbers, names of CIA personnel and a signature have been withheld, in addition to information about individuals. The substantive portion of this document has been released. This document is UNCLASSIFIED, but the redacted information remains statutorily exempted from release under the FOIA.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains internal organizational data, personnel information and functions by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the names of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description:

This document is a 8-page intelligence report dated circa early 1970s, from the CIA to other intelligence consumers about the capture, containment and execution of two American journalists by Khmer Communists in Kompong Cham Province in Southeastern Cambodia. This document provides information about human sources, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals internal CIA control markings, dissemination control information and other CIA numbers, and the names of individuals all of which have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential human sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the names of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description:

This document is a 2-page memorandum from the CIA to the Chief of the PW/MIA Branch at DIA Headquarters about the results of the DIA's request for CIA assistance regarding photograph comparison tests and a search of North Vietnamese publications held by the CIA. This document provides information about a human source, identification methods, reveals internal CIA control markings, dissemination control information and other CIA numbers, and the names of individuals all of which have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified SECRET.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including a confidential human source that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Document Description:

This document is a 2-page intelligence report from the CIA to other intelligence consumers about the capture of two U.S. military advisors by a North Vietnamese Army unit in Kontum Province. This document identifies and provides information about human sources, identifies the location of CIA facilities overseas, reveals internal CIA control markings, dissemination control information and other CIA numbers, and the names of individuals all of which have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential human sources that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the names of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description:

This document is a 3-page intelligence report from the CIA to other intelligence consumers about the sighting of three U.S. military POWs in Prey Veng Province, Cambodia on July 8, 1973. This document identifies and provides information about a human source, reveals internal CIA control markings, dissemination control information and other CIA numbers, and the names of individuals all of which have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, intelligence sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including a confidential human source, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains internal organizational data and functions of the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the names of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains CIA internal organizational data, functions, and personnel information that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the names of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.

Document Description:

This document is a 4-page CIA memorandum about the sighting of two captured U.S. POWs in South Vietnam, one of whom may have died in captivity and the possible suicide of a third POW. The document reveals information about a human source, internal CIA control markings, dissemination control information in addition to names of individuals all of which have been properly withheld. The substantive portion of this document has been released. It is currently and properly classified CONFIDENTIAL.

This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA Exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3) and (b)(6).

Exemption (b)(1): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(1). This document contains information relating to intelligence activities, sources and methods, foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended. Disclosure of the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security. Additionally, the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 12958, as amended. The CIA has determined that the information withheld pursuant to exemption (b)(1) is also exempt from automatic declassification at 25 years under Executive Order 13526.

Exemption (b)(3): This document is withheld in part on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3). This document also contains CIA internal organizational data, functions, and personnel information that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, and thus is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(3).

Exemption (b)(6): The CIA withheld certain information from this document pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(6) on the grounds that the information, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals. Specifically, this document contains personal information including the names and/or social security numbers of individuals. Because this withheld information provides personal identifying information about particular individuals, it is protectable under exemption (b)(6).

The CIA conducted a line-by-line review of this document to determine whether meaningful, reasonably segregable, non-exempt portions of the document could be released. As a result, the CIA is releasing all information that was segregable and not otherwise exempt.
