Good afternoon Helena,

The National Archive accessioning office has recently completed a review of remaining P2018 Late Transfer requests for Navy record groups from the Washington National Records Center (WNRC) to Archives II in College Park.

During our review, our office located forty six additional transfers which either contained possible temporary records or a mixture of permanent and possibly temporary material

The attached spreadsheet will provide information concerning our review. Please advise our office by Friday November 9th 2018 if you have any questions, comments, or concerns regarding this review.

Dear Mr. Boatwright: Steve;

Enclosed are signed copies of Standard Form 258 (our numbers NN3-024-02-001 and NN3-298-02-001) for records of your agency recently transferred to the custody of the National Archives and Records Administration. The signature on Line 16 confirms that the records have been accepted into the archives of the United States.

Please note the following items concerning Job NN3-024-02-001

Boxes 1-3 of Accession 024-80-0030 were missing.

Boxes 1-10 (the entire accession) of Accession 024-91-0008 were missing

These records were not transferred to the National Archives. If you should locate them in your agency, please send them directly to the National Archives at College Park and do not return them to the Washington National Records Center (WNRC).

If you have any questions about this transfer, please let me know by telephone (301-837-0595) or by e-mail Richard.Wood@nara.gov

Sincerely,

RICHARD E. WOOD

Arrangement:

This series has no clear arrangement scheme; however, there is a detailed folder list for the contents of each box. Also note, the date span in the series title refers to dates of coverage, not dates of creation.

Function & Use:

These records were used by the Bureau of Naval Personnel to document accidents where notification of next of kin or the media was necessary.

Scope & Content:

This series contains records concerning casualty causing accidents and war time operations. The records in this series are quite varied. Examples of topical subjects include: 1941 Pearl Harbor attack and casualty lists, USS Arizona Memorial Wall, World War II operation casualty lists, USS Thresher casualty files and correspondence, American Prisoners of War in Korea and Japan, various aircraft accidents, Naval ship accidents, wounded in action logs, ill/injured logs, Hurricane Camille and the subsequent missing personnel, and many various miscellaneous casualty lists,.

In total there are 275 files in this series, many of which each cover a different casualty topic. These files are contained in legal, oversized legal and index card boxes.

FUNCTION AND USE: These records were used by the Department of Navy, Bureau of Naval Personnel, to track the death notices of Navy personnel.

FINDING AIDS: NOTE: A container list is available with the Modern Military reference unit and in room 2000.
SOURCE: NARA

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: This series documents the deaths of active and retired Navy personnel. The casualty case cards include varying degrees of the following information: name, social security number, grade, component, branch, organization, date and place of birth, race, sex, religion, date and place of last entry on active duty, home of record, duty status and name, address and relationship of interested persons.

The casualty case cards also include the following information concerning the death: casualty status, date, place, cause and circumstance.

While the majority of the active duty casualty cards are from the WWII and Vietnam era, death notices of retired and inactive Navy personnel compile the bulk of these records.

Function and Use Note:

These records were used by the Department of Navy, Bureau of Naval Personnel, to track the death notices of Navy personnel.

Scope and Content Note:

This series documents the deaths of active and retired Navy personnel. The casualty case cards include varying degrees of the following information: name, social security number, grade, component, branch, organization, date and place of birth, race, sex, religion, date and place of last entry on active duty, home of record, duty status and name, address and relationship of interested persons.

The casualty case cards also include the following information concerning the death: casualty status, date, place, cause and circumstance.

While the majority of the active duty casualty cards are from the WWII and Vietnam era, death notices of retired and inactive Navy personnel compile the bulk of these records.

Dear Mr. Barth:

Enclosed is a copy of the Standard Form 258 (our number NN3-024-09-005) for 17 cubic feet of unclassified records of your agency recently transferred to the custody of the National Archives and Records Administration. The signature on Line 16 confirms that the records have been accepted into the Archives of the United States.

If you have any questions about this transfer, please let me know by telephone (301-837-0588) or by e-mail Justine.tolson@nara.gov

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Justine M. Tolson". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal line extending to the right.

and the Deputy Secretary

(see attached)

cc Agency, NR, NWMD, NURME, NURMWA

Executive Secretary

The Executive Secretary coordinates Department-wide review and analysis of policy initiatives, regulations, testimony, correspondence, memoranda, reports, and briefing materials for the Secretary and Deputy Secretary. The Executive Secretary also coordinates or undertakes special projects at the request of the Secretary, Deputy Secretary, and the Secretary's Chief of Staff.

One of the primary functions of the Office of the Executive Secretary is to maintain the record copy of correspondence for the Secretary and the Deputy Secretary.

5. Correspondence Tracking and Management System (Treasury Automated Document System, TADS)

Electronic imaging system used to maintain scanned images of unclassified incoming and outgoing executive correspondence within Treasury's Departmental Offices, internal memoranda, and related attachments or enclosures. There are no scanned images of classified documents, but some relevant metadata from classified documents received is entered into the system.

a. Inputs

Information used to populate the system consists of incoming and outgoing correspondence, internal briefing and decision memos, and some attachments and enclosures.

- 1. Official Correspondence. Copies of incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, and other documents receiving action by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary. These records document Treasury programs, policies, procedures, decisions, and other program-related or policy-related management issues. Recordkeeping hard copies of the incoming and outgoing correspondence are filed together in designated subcategories based on correspondent or subject, including security classified correspondence. Correspondence is with the private sector, internal Departmental Offices, and other government agencies, including the White House and Congress.

PERMANENT. Cut off files annually. Retire to the Washington National Records Center 2 years after cutoff. Transfer to the National Archives when 20 years old.

- 2. Numeric Correspondence File. All original incoming letters are scanned (except for classified documents) and labeled with a system-generated number and then filed in a numeric hard copy file in the Office of the Executive Secretary.

Temporary. Cut off annually. Destroy when 2 years old.

Subject: Appraisal of records covered by Job No. NI-56-01-07
To: NWML

The Department of the Treasury (Treasury), Departmental Offices (DO) requests disposition authority for records in the Office of Enforcement.

Mission

The Office of Enforcement is responsible for coordinating Treasury law enforcement activities and the formulation of enforcement policies for the Department. It negotiates international agreements to engage in joint law enforcement operations. It also provides oversight and supervision for the following bureaus and offices: U.S. Customs Service; U.S. Secret Service; Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms; Federal Law Enforcement Training Center; Financial Crimes Enforcement Network; Office of Foreign Assets Control; and Executive Office of Asset Forfeiture.

The Office of the Under Secretary for Enforcement was established in FY 1994 to promote and protect the Treasury Department's enforcement interests, so that there is an equalization across other departmental secretariats as they deal with enforcement issues. The Assistant Secretary reports to, and acts for the Under Secretary, represents the Under Secretary in major law enforcement matters that require senior level attention in the Department, and serves as liaison for the Under Secretary with state, local and other federal law enforcement agencies. The Deputy Assistant Secretaries for Enforcement reports directly to the Assistant Secretary.

1. Subject Files

This series encompasses the subject files for all the appointee levels mentioned above. The subjects within the files may affect national and worldwide policies and practices concerning law enforcement, crime detection and deterrence, and terrorism. The disposition reads: "Permanent. Break files annually. Transfer to the records center when two years old or when no longer needed for agency business, whichever is later, or within one year after a change in administration. Transfer to the National Archives 10 years after break." After interviews with the offices of appointees and then with the offices of directors, it appears that there are differing views on the time period needed to retain files onsite. Several factors determined the retention period for this series: 1) Some of the files are ongoing and long term, others are short term; 2) Some offices fail to keep records up to date by retaining outdated records in valuable office space; and 3) Incoming appointees who receive briefing books on subjects within their purview do not need the former appointee's records. To address all of these issues, three alternatives are written into the disposition. To send inactive, short term records offsite, the portion reading, "when two years old or when no longer needed for agency business, whichever is later" allows for transfer. On the other hand, if there is a change in administration, the new appointee will not be required to retain the former appointee's records for two years onsite according to the instruction that states, "or within one year after a change in administration." These records contain permanently valuable information documenting decisions and activities at the highest level of the Department of the Treasury.

2. Chronological Files, Correspondence Unit

This unit and its files are maintained exclusively for the Under Secretary and the Assistant Secretary. The records are all outgoing paper documents signed by both officials. While some of the letters and memos are scanned into the TADS automated system (N1-56-01-4) maintained by the Office of the Executive Secretary, some are not. Not all of the scanned images in the TADS system have a corresponding paper document in the files of the Executive Secretary. (The TADS electronic records are temporary, since many are scanned images, but the paper source records are permanent.) As a result, the Chron files of the appointees are all designated for permanent retention in order for NARA to receive as complete a set of correspondence as possible.

3. Correspondence Files, Correspondence Unit

These are records maintained by exclusively by the correspondence unit for the Under Secretary and Assistant Secretary. The records are the incoming paper communications from various sources including Congress, other agencies, foreign country representatives, interest groups and the general public. As in the Chron Files for the Correspondence Unit (item 2, above), some of the letters and memos are scanned into the TADS automated system and some are not. For NARA to receive a complete set of incoming and outgoing correspondence, this series has been designated permanent with the same disposition as the Chron File.

4. Chronological Files, Deputy Assistant Secretaries

This series is similar to item 2 above, documenting all responses signed by the Deputy Assistant Secretaries (DAS). The records are all outgoing paper documents signed by the official. The collection of documents reflects the activity of the appointee while in office, providing an accounting of the business of the Department of Treasury. The disposition is the same as the previous items: permanent

5. Speeches and Testimonies

These files contain copies of the speeches and Congressional testimony given by the appointee as an official of Treasury. The official copy of public speeches and testimony is maintained in the Office of Public Affairs. The disposition is temporary since this record is actually a duplicate, used solely for reference.

6. Calendars and schedules of daily activities

Since calendars of high departmental officials are traditionally permanent, Treasury followed suit by designating the calendars of these appointees as permanent also. These records are printed from a word processing document. The disposition mirrors those of items 1 through 4 of this schedule. All dispositions for the appointee records (except GRS items) are permanent.

7. Telephone logs

The telephone log records are maintained in either paper notebooks, carbon copies of message slips or a printed version of an electronic log. These records, in electronic form, are printed from a word processing document. The disposition mirrors those of items 1 through 4 and 6 of this schedule. All dispositions for the appointee records (except GRS items) are permanent.

8. Subject Files

This series contains files in the offices of the directors and below. Since the files duplicate much of the contents of the subject files for the appointees, they were deemed repetitive and not to have permanent value. These files are maintained long term for ongoing issues and projects, thus the disposition of destroying when five years old or no longer needed, whichever is later. All of the offices interviewed agreed that the disposition would meet their needs of disposing of unnecessary material while retaining long term information.

9. Chronological Files

This Chron File at the director level and below contains documents repeated in the appointees' files or in the Office of the Executive Secretary. These files are maintained for reference on ongoing issues and projects, thus "destroy when five years old or no longer needed, whichever is later," is a disposition that conforms to agency needs.

Conclusion

The records covered by this job, N1-56-01-07, are a combination of permanent and temporary. Items 1 through 7 are records of political appointees at Treasury. All of these series, except item 5, have permanent historical value. They document policy decisions and implementation of procedures, policy, and guidance in the Treasury law enforcement bureaus. Items 8 and 9 are records of directors (non-appointee, or career officials), and below. As stated above, the directors' records are repetitive, containing documentation of day to day activities, rather than high level decisions.

The dispositions in this schedule meet the needs of the offices as verified during the appraisal meetings with the Treasury staff who create, file, and maintain the records. At this point Treasury wishes to bring their records schedule more in line with other Departments, by making appointees records permanent, and standardizing that permanent disposition through all the program areas. I agree with all the dispositions in job N1-56-01-07.

Records series common to the offices of the:
Directors

8. Subject Files

These files consist of briefing books and files on specific topics, issues or projects. Arranged alphabetically by subject or bureau, with subcategories under the subject or bureau. The subjects relate to specific law enforcement topics within the Director's program area and general law enforcement policies.

Disposition: Temporary. Break files annually. Destroy when 5 years old or when no longer needed, whichever is later.

[Supersedes NC1-56-80-1, #3a, 3b]

9. Chronological Files

Copies of outgoing correspondence, and may include incoming correspondence and background information, arranged in chronological order. This file is maintained as a record of the office's responses to inquiries from Congress, other federal agencies, private industry, the general public, and other Treasury offices.

Disposition: Temporary. Break files annually. Destroy when 5 years old or when no longer needed, whichever is later.

[New]

10. Electronic Mail and Word Processing System Copies

Electronic copies of records that are created on electronic mail and word processing systems and used solely to generate a recordkeeping copy of the records covered by the other items in this schedule. Also includes electronic copies of records created on electronic mail and word processing systems that are maintained for updating, revision, or dissemination.

a. Copies that have no further administrative value after the recordkeeping copy is made. Includes copies maintained by individuals in personal files, personal electronic mail directories, or other personal directories on hard disk or network drives, and copies on shared network drives that are used only to produce the recordkeeping copy.

Disposition: Temporary. Destroy/delete within 180 days after the record keeping has been produced.

b. Copies used for dissemination, revision, or updating that are maintained in addition to the recordkeeping copy.

Disposition: Temporary. Destroy/delete when dissemination, revision, or updating is completed.

We have reviewed NCL-56-78-6 relating to the records of the Office of General Counsel, Department of the Treasury, and, in general, concur with the proposed schedule.

It appears that the Department of the Treasury has met most of the objections we raised when the schedule for OGC was first submitted, particularly in regard to the legislative history files and the litigation case files. I do have some reservations about the subject correspondence files (Items 8 and 9) because of their rapid accumulation rates, but I am willing to agree to designating these files as permanent if the non-record material and routine facilitative documents are screened out by the Department of the Treasury before the records are transferred to WNRC as provided in the schedule. My only question concerns subject correspondence files of the OGC which already have been transferred to WNRC. If there are such files, is the Department willing to screen those files also before the records are offered to NARS for accessioning?

I appreciate the difficulties Ed Barrese has had in developing this schedule, and I recommend that we approve the schedule as drafted.

REMARKS

Informal Review of NCI-5678-6.

Treasury's position on this schedule is that NARS should give its approval since the Department has complied with our letter of 5/26/77. I had some difficulty convincing the records + program people of the need for my revisions of items 3 and 8. Further amendments would be even more difficult.

With the attached Request for Records Disposition Authority, SF 115, the Office of the Secretary, Department of the Treasury, seeks approval for the disposition of records created by the Office of the General Counsel (OGC). As presently drafted, this schedule applies to all functional areas of the OGC except for those related to the Internal Revenue Service (Assistant GC for IRS) and tax legislation (Assistant GC for Tax Legislation).

NCI-56-78-6 is a revision of NCI-56-76-4 which was withdrawn with the consent of both MARS and the Office of the Secretary in December, 1977. Our review of the earlier job indicated serious problems, specially with regard to legislative history files and litigation tax files. Based on our analysis of NCI-56-76-4 (by both NCD and NMF), we wrote the Office of the Secretary on May 26, 1977, outlining our specific reservations. The OGC revision has incorporated all suggested changes proposed in our letter except for one minor point concerning the destruction of records by burning in WARC.

There are five items proposed for permanent retention in the present job, Items 1, 2, 3b, 8 and 9. Items 1, 2, and 3b have been the subject of the exchange of memoranda between NMF and NCD. Arrangement statements, covering dates, total volumes, and annual rates of accumulation are provided on the schedule. These legal opinions and memoranda with their related indexes warrant permanent retention because they document, in a condensed form, many of the formal policy recommendations of the OGC. Background documentation leading to all the policy recommendations of the OGC is found in the subject correspondence files described in Items 3 and 9. These also warrant permanent retention, but, unfortunately, accumulate at a rapid rate (approx. 17 cubic feet/year). There is a substantial amount of non-record material and facilitative files present in these two items. Personnel in the OGC and/or the Records Management Branch, will screen the temporary records prior to the transfer of the permanent records to WARC. This screening will reduce the volume of Items 3 and 9 by 50-75%.

All temporary items on the schedule have been appropriately scheduled for destruction when legal and administrative needs have ended. Although the retention periods for many of these items are lengthy (25 years), the records accumulate at a relatively slow rate and should cause no serious storage problems in WARC.

I recommend referral of NCI-56-78-6 to NMF for informal comment.

Dear John:

This letter summarizes the current status of your proposed records disposition schedule, Disposition Job No. NCI-56-76-4, for the Office of the General Counsel. We have arrived at the following conclusions.

Items 1 and 3, Legal Opinions and Memoranda, describe the same records, therefore, Item 3 should be deleted. Neither description makes clear the fact that legal opinions and memoranda constitute two distinct series of records. Item 1 should be expanded to include 2 parts in order to reflect this distinction. Also, a new item should be added to the schedule which would describe the extensive card indices maintained for both series. We believe that the opinions and memoranda along with their indices have permanent historical value and should be preserved in the National Archives.

Since Item 2, Legal Division Orders, consists of copies of documents published in the Federal Register, these records need not be permanently retained. The disposition instructions for this series should be rewritten to reflect the fact that the records are simply reference copies and may be destroyed when no longer needed for this purpose.

The disposition instructions for Items 11b and 12-16 call for destruction of the records by burning. In keeping with current environmental standards, the Washington National Records Center does not destroy records by incineration and has substituted other acceptable disposal methods. Therefore, the disposition instructions on these records should call for destruction by incineration, pulping, or shredding.

Concerning Items 4 and 5, Litigation Subject and Case Files, we believe that these series lack permanent historical value inasmuch as they document routine legal issues, consist mainly of electrostatic copies of court proceedings, and are duplicated in formal court records. The disposition instructions for these two items should require their destruction when the records cease to have administrative value.

We also believe that Items 6 and 7, Legislative History and Subject Files, lack permanent historical value. A large portion of these records consists of copies of proposed and enacted legislation. In the past, we have normally accepted legislative history files generated at the Cabinet level for permanent preservation in the National Archives. The submission of your schedule has occasioned a review of this procedure. We have made a comparison of legislative history records already accessioned into Record Group 56, General Records of the Department of the Treasury, with legislative history records from the same period found in Record Group 51, Records of the Bureau of the Budget. This research has shown that the substantive historical documentation concerning the Department of Treasury's opinions on various pieces of legislation is available in the Bureau of the Budget records. The National Archives also accessions records of the committees of the Senate and House of Representatives. These contain hearings and correspondence that further document the Department of the Treasury's position on legislation. Since we have scheduled the legislative history files of the Bureau of the Budget (and later the Office of Management and Budget) for permanent preservation, we feel that Treasury's legislative history files should not be retained.

Consequently, the disposition instructions for Items 6 and 7 should be changed to provide for the destruction of the Treasury legislative history records after their administrative need ceases.

Our consideration of your schedule has been extensive. It has involved numerous interviews with representatives of the records management staff of the Office of the Secretary of Treasury. In addition, several examinations of on site records were made and we made an even more extensive evaluation of records retired to the Washington National Records Center. Finally, members of the Civil Archives Division of the National Archives have contributed substantially to this evaluation. Although in the past we have routinely accepted for permanent retention various legal records such as legislative history files created at the Cabinet level, we feel that our recent appraisal requires amending past judgments.

If you have any questions concerning these matters, please contact Edward Barrese on 724-1998.

Sincerely,

(signed) THOMAS W. WADLOW

Dear John:

In accordance with recent discussions held between you and Ed Barrese of my staff, we are withdrawing from active consideration your proposed comprehensive records control schedule for records created by the Office of the General Counsel (NARS Disposal Job No. NCI-56-76-4). The schedule will require substantive revision after agreement is reached on several items proposed for permanent retention. We will, of course, work closely with your staff in developing a new comprehensive schedule which will have greater utility for both your agency and NARS.

If you have any further questions concerning this matter, please contact Ed Barrese on 724-1998.

Sincerely,

Ms. Evangela C. Wimbush-Jeffrey
Department of the Treasury
Office of Treasury Records
1500 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Room 6907 Annex
Washington, DC 20220

Dear Ms. Wimbush-Jeffrey:

Enclosed is a copy of a Standard Form 258 (our number NN3-056-10-001) for a total of 406 cubic feet of classified records your agency recently transferred to the custody of the National Archives and Records Administration.

The signature on Line 16 confirms that the records have been accepted into the Archives of the United States.

If you have any questions about this transfer, please let me know by telephone (301-837-1949) or by e-mail Noah.Shankin@nara.gov.

Sincerely,

Noah D. Shankin
